
Svetlana Klunduk - icons.

Svetlana Klunduk has been interested in icon painting since her youth.
To become a Master in this,
she studied works of old masters and icon painting techniques at art school and then at Gorky Art College.
Her other passion is open work birch bark carving with embossment.
The base of linden or mahogany seen through the lace of birch bark created unforgettable effects.
Then Svetlana decorated the bark with enamels, mother of pearls, stones, gold leaf, etc.
Usually there is a canon in icon painting which you have to follow, but as for the decoration of the frame for the icon - here the fantasy of the artist is free.

Svetlana’s icons look festive, full of light and shine like heaven.

Creation of one icon is time consuming process.
From birch bark preparation to final decoration of the icon, it can take from one to few months.
Her icons follow the canon in painting and are approved by Orthodox Church.
Svetlana’s works are recognized by her unique frames and loved and admired by visitors and customers.

Svetlana makes both Orthodox and Catholic icons.
