
Buzin Igor

I was born in 1958, in Smolensk.
I started to paint when I was a little child;
even then I wanted to put onto the canvas the landscapes
which impressed me.
Most of all I liked magical sunsets and sun rises,
when the sky attained amazingly bright colors.
In all my works I try to express harmony and abundance of the color which exists in Nature.

I studied art professionally at the Orlov Art Collage, then at the Moscow State Art Institute named after V. Surikov.
Since 1991, I have been a member of the Artists’ Union of Russia a nd participate in exhibitions in Russia and abroad.

A special place in my art belongs to flowers and still life.
Created by nature tender hues of buds and petals are transferred onto the canvas with the help of full palette of paints.
I consider it a great success when flowers look alive and realistic.

I will copy any of my work you like for you.
