
Dmitriev Sergey - Kholui lacquer painting

I am an Artist who paints lacquer miniature.
I am one of a dynasty -
my grandfather and great grandfather painted and they passed the love for it to me.
As every child, I loved reading fairy tales and then transferred them onto paper.
When you do it, it is as if you get into the fairytale, into another world, just use your imagination.
I still love painting fairytales and I am happy when my works are enjoyed by others.

I also like walking with photo camera to take pictures of nature, forest, different cities, and then to paint all this.
Recently, I have taken to graphicsink and technical pen,
I like it very much when the works appear to be good.

I am a member of Artist Union of Russia.
Some of my works took their place in museum collections in Russia.

I enjoy being an Artist, being able to see the beauty and to pass it to others.
And if my works bring joy to others, it is the best I can wish for.
