
Dyakova Irina - Fedoskino lacquer painting.

I hold a degree in women’s clothing design, but after working for a few years I felt that I could do more.

So I changed my career into Fedoskino miniature painting, and along with this I studied decorative and applied art.

I have been working in Fedoskino for more than 10 years as a tour guide, miniature painter and art teacher for children.
Besides this, I paint landscapes and write poems.

My recent work is an illustrated poem of Fedoskino history.
It is important for me that my paintings be based on literature.

I travel a lot and work in the open air,
transferring local nature beauties onto the canvas.

My other muse is my daughter.
An Artist’s surroundings are very important because it is from them that they derive inspiration.
