
Naboka Andriy

Andriy was born in 1985 in Kiev.
At the age of 6 he watched the work of his father,
a fine painter and started to draw.
He studied in State Art School named after T. Shevchenko and in the National Academy of Art and Architecture named after A. Lopukhov.
In 2009 he joined the Youth department of the National Union of Artist’s in the Ukraine.

Life never gave other choice but to become an Artist.
I travel and fill myself; art gives me an opportunity to express my impressions, to bring the energetic message and to fulfill my dreams.

At the age of 5-12 I spend summers at dacha,
in the village and oftentimes was alone with paper and watercolors.
Then I felt envy to those who spent each summer at seas.
But now I do appreciate those moments T
being alone enriches us.
Only favorite activity can make people happy.

Copyright © 2013 RussianFineArt.co - Phone: 904-688-0192 - email: tatyana@russianfineart.co

Andriy Naboka has a history of participating in Ukrainian national exhibitions as a member of the National Union of the Artists of Ukraine;
a status he achieved in 2009 when he entered the young member section of the National Union of Artists of Ukraine.
In the past, he has also taken part in competitive exhibitions of students’ works at the Shatalin Exhibition, the Puzirkov Exhibition and in the Zarezky Exhibition.
Andriy Naboka is an accomplished Artist with a distinct preference of working on canvas with oils.
His work is energizing and his use of color is boldly refreshing.
Many of his works can be found in private collections in Germany, Russia and Ukraine, and most recently in the U.S.
Andriy Naboka has held master classes in the United States and Portugal.
He has participated in plein air in Ukraine and abroad.

Copyright © 2013 RussianFineArt.co - Phone: 904-688-0192 - email: tatyana@russianfineart.co