
Olkhov Vladimir

It is amazing!

I am an Artist.

Now I understand that by divine decision my destiny is to be an Artist.

How is it that a son of workers,
as soon as he learned how to hold a pencil and modeling clay,
subconsciously felt appeal of this?
It filled my childhood with some light and joyful pleasure.
It always seemed as though this was born with me.

When I grew older, this grew into real love for the rest of my life.
I devoted myself to studying till I felt euphoria from this.
My will to become an Artist gave me strength,
and the flame of love for painting grew stronger, too.

I cannot say that everything in my life was easy,
but love for painting had always saved me and warmed my heart,
giving the feeling of happiness and bliss.

Now that factionalism, substitution of ideals and distortion of history governs the human society T
it results in disappointment, indifference and emptying of the Soul.
I feel lucky to have found the way to avoid this emptiness and to be face to face with my favorite engagement and fill my Soul with light and clear energy, which comes from the Nature itself, from the Creator.

Of course, to feel the real highest vibration is not easy, but perhaps that is what it means to be an Artist --
to find this real life-giving source and to image it.
Each time you try to feel the reality you never know how much the mystery of this world (beauty) will reveal itself to you.

There is famous saying ‘Beauty will save the world’.
In this simple phrase, there is a hidden idea,
the formula of our salvation.
Just think and you will understand this.

Beauty itself cannot be destructive,
aggressive or negative from any side.
When a person opens the secret of Beauty, it changes his nature --- he becomes kind, peaceful, which means loving,
and this puts him closer to the Creator.
Because God is Love.
To love (not in the narrow meaning)
and to be loved means happiness to us.
That is why I wish you all only Love.

Let God guard you.
